CONGREGATIONS UNITE FOR LIBERTY

Every church in Tonopah yesterday held patriotic services in aid of the Liberty Loan and there was great fervor and enthusiasm displayed. The patriotic songs sung and the addresses delivered showed that the spirit of the nation is still fervid and true. Very elaborate preparations had been made by the Christian Scientists and the edifice was thronged. Despite the absence of the pastor, the singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner" and the addresses delivered showed that the Presbyterians are patriotic.

T. A. R. BAZAAR NETS SUM OF $2,200

Thanks to the generosity of the owners of the Airdome, who permitted the T. A. R. booths to remain for the Saturday night dance, the sum of $227.50 was added to the ambulance fund. A large crowd was present at the dance and the booths were splendidly patronized, everything being disposed of. The total receipts for both evenings were $2,200.

The women in charge of the financial end of the affair are busy today checking up on all receipts, bills, etc., in order to have a complete report to submit to a meeting of all T. A. R. members, which will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Airdome. Everyone is urged to be present as, besides the very interesting reports to be made, other business of the greatest importance will come up for consideration.

THE PUBLIC THANKED.

I wish to take this means of expressing my gratitude to the many who worked so hard with me, and the public in general, for the splendid support they gave the T. A. R. in making the recent entertainment an unqualified success.

T. J. DRON, who is engaged in the mercantile business in Manhattan, returned to camp last night, after spending several days in Tonopah.

LIBERTY LOAN DAY WILL BE OBSERVED

BUSINESS HOUSES WILL CLOSE AND MONSTER MASS MEETING WILL BE HELD.

Wednesday, October 24, designated by presidential proclamation as Liberty Loan day, is going to be observed in characteristic Tonopah fashion. The banks, stores, brokerage offices and saloons will close for the afternoon in order to enable everyone to attend the monster mass meeting at the Airdome at 3 p. m.

Brewster Adams of Reno and Hugh Brown of Tonopah will address the meeting. Further comment on this subject is unnecessary, as both men are well known as forceful speakers, as well as being unusually well informed on the subject of our country's part in this great struggle. H. R. Cooke will act as chairman of the meeting, which insures a snappy and vigorous handling of the program.

The Nevada Liberty Loan committee is also sending a short moving picture film especially prepared for this campaign and which will undoubtedly prove to be of intense interest at this time.

Subscriptions for bonds are coming in rapidly today and it looks like Nye county was hitting its stride. Notable among the subscriptions received is one for $5,000 from the Rescue-Eula Mining company.

GOOD WORK DONE BY MRS. GEO. J. MURPHY

RESIGNS AND IS SUCCEEDED AT BATHS BY MR. RAYCRAFT.

The receipts of the Tonopah natatorium for the last week were $75 in total. This amount was collected from the few days and nights when the pool was used, when the weather was not inclement.

Mrs. George J. Murphy was induced to accept the place of attendant for a short time, for which service the management thought a compensation of $5 a day none too much, which the lady reluctantly accepted, but at the close of the evening Sunday Mrs. Murphy decided that the responsibility of the position was too great for her and the call of her own domestic duties too urgent to longer remain at the natatorium as attendant, so severed her connection therewith. She will continue to devote her free time to the swimming pool and will, as she always has done, lend her valued and most fruitful aid to the cause. It is impossible to replace Mrs. Murphy, but the management feels content if she will continue to assist in future as she has in the past.

The cost of keeping open the pool during the cold weather is great and it has been suggested that the only week night when the place will be regularly opened will be Thursday for adults only and all of Saturday and Sunday nights included for the kiddies and grown-ups. This suggestion seems a good one and if it is the will of the people of the town that this should be done The Bonanza would be pleased to hear an expression on the subject.

The natatorium will always be ready for swimmers and if a crowd wishes to visit the place on any night other than the ones stated the place will be cheerfully opened on request by phone to The Bonanza, Mrs. Murphy or Mr. Lynch. G. E. Raycraft will have charge of the baths.

AMUSEMENTS

ALICE JOYCE AT THE BUTLER.

"Her Secret," the Vitaphone Blue Ribbon feature, starring Alice Joyce and Harry T. Morey, is the attraction at the Butler this evening. This feature is forceful, with tensely dramatic situations and replete with human interest and sympathetic role of a school teacher at the touches. Alice Joyce is cast in the western town of Yampa Creek in the first part of the story and never before was she more attractive. Her work with the many kiddies who play the roles of the scholars is delightful and refreshing and one finds no trouble in recognizing within her the ideal mother—which is the part she plays in natural life. How the little tots cry when she is forced to leave them to take a position in the city! Little Helen Connelly plays the part of one of these scholars and big, briny tears roll down her cheeks as she clings affectionately to the teacher's skirt. And when Miss Joyce steps into the rickety old stagecoach which is to take her to her train one tiny lad clutches her suit so tightly that a long rip manifests itself under the strain. In fact, it is very evident that the love they bear in the picture is truly sincere—it could not be duplicated by the most artistic acting in the world. In addition to the feature, the latest release of Hearst-Pathe News will be shown. Tomorrow, Vivian Martin and Jack Pickford. Wednesday, the big circus drama, with special matinee at 1 o'clock—"Folly of the Circus." "The Fighting Trail" will also soon be here. Read the story every week in The Bonanza; see the picture every Friday.
